Beginning with July 1st an important change in the outside force of the Custom House will be made. It is understood upon good authority that the vacancy made by the resignation of the George C. Stratemeyer, several weeks ago, will not be filled. Mr. Stratemeyer's position was that of acting port surveyor but in reality was a special deputy collector's job.

It was at first the intention to have Particular attention given to pur-chase and sale of Hawaiian Sugar the vacant position, but on due con-John W. The work of looking out for the carrying on of the outside work will devolve upon a discharging inspector, who will act in the position at an in-creased salary, and be directly under the orders of the Collector. Inspec-tors E. A. Jacobsen and M. J. Scanlon, who have been longest of any of the inspectors with the Customs House, are looked upon as the men from whom the selection for the new position will be choose between them.

BOY'S BRIGADE WORK.

The annual meeting of the Boys' Brigade officers was held last night in the Y. M. C. A. The following were elected to serve during the ensuing John D. Waldron, secretary. The an nucl reports of the heads of the various committees and the officers, were read. The treasurer's report covers practi-cally two years. During that time the Brigade has expended $4,389.80 for trade school building, tools and machinery for shops, and salary. President Richards' report was interesting and comprehensive. The industrial report by John D. Waldron, the superin-tendent of the Boys' Brigade school, showed that there were 140 boys in the shop since the school began in November, with thirty regular attendants and twenty-five casuals,
